

Across

1. What you call something that can break down and be absorbed by the environment.
3. Underground reservoirs of water.
4. Something that is made to be used only once.
8. Something that can be used again.
10. The act of keeping something from happening.

Down

1. Different kinds of plants and animals living in an environment.
2. Place where plants and animals naturally live.
5. Anything with poisonous ingredients.
6. Protected bay or lagoon near the seashore.
7. Water under the earth's surface.
9. Preventing loss, waste or damage.
11. A thick, oily, dark liquid used to make gasoline.

- toxic
- recycle
- habitat
- disposable
- biodiversity
- biodegradable
- aquifer
- groundwater
- estuary
- conservation
- petroleum
- prevention

